Description

Epitome Two is a beautifully presented 61ft semi-traditional narrowboat, crafted with exceptional attention to detail by the highly regarded Aqualine Marine in 2008. Lovingly maintained and thoughtfully upgraded, this boat offers both charm and comfort, making her an ideal choice for liveaboard life or extended cruising. In 2025, Epitome Two received a fresh update with brand-new Channel glaze windows, enhancing both light and insulation throughout the interior.

Step aboard and you're welcomed into a spacious and well-appointed interior laid out in the traditional style, with the bedroom at the stern and the saloon at the bow. The heart of the boat is the stylish galley, featuring striking granite worktops, a stainless steel sink, Shoreline 12v fridge/freezer, and a Belling gas oven with a four-ring hob. Ample storage comes in the form of drawers, cupboards, and a wall-mounted unit, all finished with smart wooden flooring underfoot.

The dinette area offers a cosy L-shaped seating arrangement, which conveniently converts into a double bed for guests. With storage beneath the seats and a radiator to keep things warm, it's a practical and inviting space to dine, work, or relax. This leads seamlessly into the saloon, where two plush captain’s chairs with footstools invite you to unwind. A solid fuel stove adds a traditional touch, accompanied by a TV, satellite box, corner storage unit, and soft lighting from four wall-mounted fixtures. Wooden floors and a rug give the space a homely, welcoming feel.

At the rear of the boat, the master bedroom is a tranquil retreat, complete with a fixed double bed, two wardrobes, overhead storage, and underbed drawers. Soft carpet underfoot and warm reading lights create a peaceful atmosphere, perfect for restful nights afloat. The adjoining bathroom is well-equipped with a Vetus pump-out toilet, a full-size shower, heated towel rail, wall shelving, and a large vanity mirror. Tiled flooring and clever storage make the space both functional and stylish.

Epitome Two is a truly lovely narrowboat that has been well cared for and tastefully finished throughout. Her thoughtful layout, quality fittings, and timeless design make her a stand-out option for anyone seeking comfort, style, and reliability on the water.
