Description

Step aboard Florence Alana, a delightful 50ft traditional stern narrowboat built in 1982, boasting the solid craftsmanship of a trusted Colecraft hull. Lovingly cared for and brimming with character, this inviting vessel combines classic charm with the practical comforts needed for life on the water.

The thoughtfully arranged galley is well-equipped for everyday living or long-term cruising, featuring a cooker, sink, under-counter fridge, washing machine, and water heater. Generous built-in storage ensures everything has its place, helping to keep the space neat and efficient.

Moving into the lounge, you'll find a cosy and welcoming space with an L-shaped seating area that easily converts into a comfortable guest bed. A solid fuel stove adds warmth and ambience, while the corner unit near the front steps provides a stylish touch and handy storage.

The master bedroom offers a peaceful retreat with a fixed bed and clever storage solutions, perfect for keeping belongings organised and the space clutter-free.

The bathroom is compact yet functional, fitted with a corner shower unit, sink with vanity unit, and a cassette toilet. For those who prefer, the original pump-out tank is still in place and ready to be reconnected.

Florence Alana is a charming and practical narrowboat with a warm, homely feel – ideal for weekend getaways, extended cruising adventures, or full-time living on the waterway
