Description

Welcome to Kaspra, a charming and meticulously maintained 57ft traditional narrowboat, crafted in 2005. This elegant vessel offers a cosy and inviting atmosphere, perfect for both families and couples seeking a serene escape on the waterways. With its classic design and thoughtful layout, Kaspra ensures a delightful and comfortable journey.

The heart of Kaspra is its galley, a perfect blend of functionality and traditional charm. Equipped with a reliable gas cooker, a gleaming stainless steel sink, and a trusty Electrolux fridge, this kitchen is ready for all your culinary adventures. The oak cupboards provide ample storage and add a touch of rustic elegance, making the galley both practical and aesthetically pleasing.

Step into the lounge, where the ambiance is warm and inviting. The walls are adorned with American light ash boarding, beautifully complemented by oak trim above the gunwales. The oak-panelled saloon doors add a touch of classic charm, while the painted surfaces below the gunwales provide a harmonious contrast. Traditional roses and castles line the side doors, adding a dash of narrowboat artistry and heritage.

The dinette is a cosy and versatile space, perfect for meals or as an additional seating area. The traditional design and comfortable seating make it an ideal spot for enjoying a cup of tea or sharing stories with fellow travellers.

The boatman's cabin, steeped in tradition, offers a quaint and functional space. With ample storage and a classic design, this cabin provides a cosy retreat, reminiscent of the narrowboats of yesteryears.

The master bedroom features a spacious 5'0" wide cross bed, providing a comfortable and restful night's sleep. This versatile space can also be converted into a lounge area, perfect for relaxing during the day. The traditional design and thoughtful layout ensure a tranquil and inviting atmosphere.

Kaspra's bathroom is a haven of comfort and convenience. Featuring a Thetford toilet with three cassettes, this space is designed for extended stays. The vanity unit and large mirror add a touch of elegance, while the 4'0" bath with shower offers a luxurious
