Description

Kingfisher is a beautifully maintained 30ft cruiser-style narrowboat, built in 1986 by the reputable Stourport Boatbuilders. This Classic Nirvana Riverboat boasts a distinctive centre cockpit layout, making it exceptionally manoeuvrable and providing excellent visibility while cruising. Compact yet cleverly designed, Kingfisher is an ideal choice for couples or small families looking to explore the waterways in comfort.

Powered by an economical diesel engine, this narrowboat is well suited to long weekends, extended breaks, or even liveaboard use. The thoughtfully laid-out interior makes full use of space, with flexible living areas and ample storage throughout.

Located at the rear of the boat, the cosy bedroom cabin features two comfortable single berths, perfect for restful nights afloat. Each berth offers generous storage underneath, making the most of the compact footprint.

The central cockpit is a standout feature, offering an open and social space with great visibility – ideal for relaxing on sunny days or operating the boat with ease. Moving forward, the main living area provides a spacious and welcoming lounge, with built-in seating and plenty of integrated storage for books, equipment, and personal items.

Opposite the lounge is a versatile dinette area featuring a table with bench-style seating. This space is perfect for meals and board games, and can also be converted to provide additional sleeping accommodation when needed.

The compact galley is fully equipped with a sink, hob, and fridge – everything you need to prepare meals while cruising. Smart cabinetry ensures your kitchen essentials are easily accessible but neatly tucked away.

The modern shower room includes a full-height shower and a compost toilet, offering convenience without the hassle of pump-outs. A small vanity unit provides space for toiletries and cleaning supplies.

Kingfisher is a classic cruiser narrowboat with all the essentials for relaxed, self-sufficient cruising. Whether you’re planning lazy weekends by the water or looking to embrace a more adventurous lifestyle, this well-built and lovingly cared-for riverboat is ready for her next chapter.
