Description

Miss Lemon is a well-presented 50ft cruiser stern narrowboat built by Dragon Narrowboats Ltd in 2007. Designed with practicality and comfort in mind, she offers a bright and welcoming interior, making her an excellent choice for leisure cruising, weekend escapes, or longer adventures. With sleeping accommodation for up to four people, diesel-fired central heating, and a sociable cruiser stern, Miss Lemon is a versatile and inviting boat that is ready to enjoy. The cruiser stern provides a spacious and sociable outdoor area, ideal for cruising with family and friends or relaxing while moored. The generous stern space allows the helmsman to enjoy company while underway, making it a popular layout for both leisure boaters and those spending extended periods aboard. Entering from the stern, the bedroom offers a comfortable and peaceful retreat. A fixed double berth provides a welcoming sleeping space, while overhead cupboards, bedside storage and a full wardrobe offer ample room for clothing and personal belongings. Reading lights create a cosy atmosphere for evening relaxation, and a television is fitted for added comfort and entertainment. The bathroom is well-equipped and thoughtfully designed to make the best use of the available space. It features a cassette toilet, a separate shower cubicle, and a hand basin set within a vanity unit providing useful storage beneath. A wall-mounted mirrored cabinet offers additional space for toiletries, while shelving and a heated towel rail add further practicality and convenience. The galley is both functional and attractive, providing everything needed for extended cruising or everyday life aboard. Solid wood worktops complement the stainless steel sink and drainer, while generous storage cupboards ensure there is plenty of space for provisions and kitchen essentials. Cooking facilities include a Caprice four-burner gas hob with grill and oven, a Prestige microwave and a Shoreline 12-volt refrigerator. A fitted wine rack and breakfast bar create a welcoming space for casual dining and socialising. Located forward of the galley, the saloon is bright, comfortable and ideal for relaxing after a day on the water. A sofa bed provides additional sleeping accommodation for guests, allowing the boat to accommodate up to four people when required. Storage cupboards and shelving provide practical space for books, personal belongings and cruising essentials, while radiators connected to the Alde central heating system ensure the...
