Description

Step aboard Sweet Painted Lady, a charming and spacious 55ft narrowboat built in 2005 by respected boatbuilder Border Boats. With a thoughtful layout and a solid, reliable hull, this well-cared-for vessel offers a perfect blend of homely comfort and blank-canvas potential—ideal for weekend cruising, extended adventures, or life afloat. The kitchen is a well-appointed and practical space, designed to make life aboard feel effortless. Cleverly arranged with generous storage, sleek worktops, and an inset sink with a mixer tap, it provides everything you need to prepare meals with ease. Cooking is a delight with the eye-level double oven, microwave, and under-counter fridge, making the galley fully equipped for both everyday use and entertaining. Light and functional, this space feels open and well-organised—perfect for continuous cruising or extended stays. The lounge is a large, open-plan area that invites you to make it your own. Currently furnished with a single lounge chair, solid-fuel stove, TV point, and built-in storage units, it offers ample space to add your personal touch—whether that's a comfy sofa, a dining table, or additional seating. This welcoming and versatile space is filled with potential, ready to be transformed into your floating living room or a cosy retreat after a day on the water. Positioned at the stern for privacy and quiet, the bedroom features a fixed double bed as its centrepiece, offering comfort and stability whether moored or cruising. A large wardrobe provides excellent storage for clothing and essentials, making it ideal for longer trips or full-time living. The warm, inviting atmosphere of the cabin makes it a restful space to relax and recharge. The bathroom on Sweet Painted Lady is impressively spacious and thoughtfully designed. A walk-in shower enclosure with bi-fold door, tiled walls, and a thermostatically controlled shower valve gives a modern and stylish feel. The ceramic macerator toilet (pump-out) is both practical and reliable, while the wash basin—set into a generous worktop with storage below—adds further functionality. Additional storage units ensure there’s a place for all your bathroom essentials, creating a clean and uncluttered space that feels just like home. From stern to bow, the boat flows naturally: starting with the tranquil bedroom, leading into the spacious bathroom, then moving into the well-equipped kitchen, and opening into the generous lounge—which connects directly to the well deck, perfect fo...
