Description

The Willerby Avonmore is a stylish and well-appointed holiday home, ideally situated in Long Ashes Park in the heart of the Yorkshire Dales. This beautifully presented two-bedroom caravan offers a fantastic opportunity to enjoy relaxing countryside getaways in a comfortable and modern setting.

Step inside to discover a bright and spacious open-plan living area, enhanced by multiple windows that flood the space with natural light. The lounge features a large L-shaped sofa, coffee table, and a cosy electric fire, perfect for unwinding after a day exploring. The adjoining dining area includes a freestanding table with four chairs, ideal for family meals or entertaining guests.

The contemporary kitchen is both practical and generous in size, offering ample workspace along with a double oven, gas hob, integrated microwave, and fridge freezer, making it well-equipped for longer stays.

Accommodation comprises a comfortable master bedroom with a double bed, overhead storage, bedside tables, a double wardrobe, and a large dressing table with wall mirror. The master also benefits from a private en-suite toilet for added convenience. The second bedroom is a twin room, complete with headboards, overhead storage, wardrobe space, and wall-mounted mirrors—perfect
